Our events educate, entertain and bring people together.

CAP (Child Abuse Prevention) Adult Prom

This annual event is a fun evening to bring awareness of the prevention of child abuse. In 2018 we had over 650 attendees and was supported by bringing in more than $71,310 to assist Child Abuse Prevention Education Programming which focuses on the prevention of child abuse and neglect within our community and surrounding areas.

CAP Council Bartholomew County is a voluntary group established to find new and creative ways of providing child abuse prevention education to Bartholomew and surrounding counties. The Council is committed to preventing child abuse and neglect before it happens through collaboration with the community.

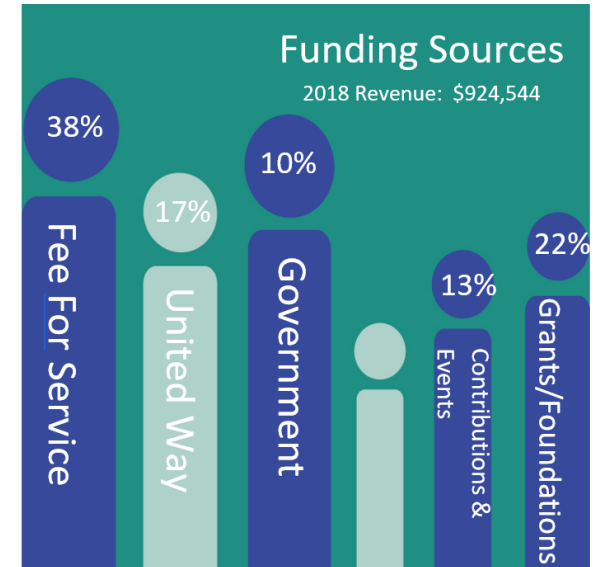

Family Service Annual Golf Scramble

The annual Golf Scramble and Luncheon offers a special opportunity for corporate partners and individuals to assist Family Service programs and get together over a meal and links! The 2019 event: May 16, 2019 at Otter Creek Country Club.
